THE GREENE EDUCATION FOUNDATION (GEF) SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS

GEF is an independent, non-profit organization dedicated to supporting public education in Greene County. Our mission is to further enrich the educational experience for the children and educators of Greene County Schools.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to offer three $1,000 scholarships this year to deserving high school seniors.

APPLICATION PROCESS

All scholarship applicants must complete the following:

- Submit an official GEF application form.
- Include a copy of most recent student transcript.
- Plan to enroll in secondary education at a college or trade school of your choice.
- Include two letters of recommendation.
- Include a description of financial situation:
 - Describe your financial need or cost of first year of schooling.
 - List any financial aid, grants, scholarship, etc., you are currently receiving or will receive during next school year.
- Include up to a two-page typewritten statement of the following:
 - Education objectives (both short- and long-term).
 - Work history and/or voluntary experiences.
 - Extra-curricular activities involved in during high school education.
 - Any honors or awards received while in high school.
 - Career goals beyond post-secondary education.
 - Description of course(s), experience, or individuals that have influenced your interest in this career field, and why or how you have been influenced.

The deadline for submitting applications is 4:30 p.m. on April 23, 2010. Applications should be submitted to the WMHS Guidance Office.

JUDGING:

Judging is subject to a scholarship evaluation committee consisting of Executive Members of the GEF Board and an Education Liaison. Recipients of the scholarship awards will be based on information provided in the application packet. The committee members will not know the names of the applicants during the judging process. Applicants will be evaluated using a point system based on the items shown at the right of the application. Applications that do not contain all requested information will not be considered.

AWARDS

Scholarship award recipients will be announced at the Senior Award ceremony in May. Checks will be disbursed once the student begins the first semester at his/her selected college or university and will be paid directly to the school.
